

Further public examination is necessary regarding the ownership rules change for television stations. At first glance the ruling does NOT appear to be in the public interest. Please delay the ruling on this important topic until October.